

As a school we have read 'Here we are' by Oliver Jeffers.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cPPQdDwTUvE&t=28s>

This set of activities is devised to support parents with distance learning for children of varying ages across the different phases of primary school.

The idea is that Maths and Literacy tasks would be set for each class but these activities are more practical and could be done together by pupils of any age within a family.